La Mezcla Staff

In spite of shortages caused by the war, the La Mezcla Staff has managed to again put out the annual book of school activities. Under the able direction of Mr. H. E. Stone, the La Mezcla Staff with Dickie Bransford as the very capable Editor sends this edition to press with a prayer. Other members of the staff were Shirley Mangels, Assistant Editor; Georgia Crowley, Manager; Clarence Chadbourne and Bob Selin, Assistant Managers. The Boys' Sports were handled by Frank Perez and Dan Root, and the Girls' Sports by Pat Stell and Dot Furtado. An exceptionally good prophecy, found elsewhere in this book, was written by Viva Downer and Loretta Pickett. Art work was very capably submitted by Lund Tim. The student photography work was handled by R. Buss, L. Pickett, and V. Downer, who did a very good job in spite of difficulties in obtaining film.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government of Armijo consists of a Board of Control under the direction of the Student Body Officers and Faculty Advisors. Each club reserves the right to send a representative to the board meeting to make and enforce the school statutes. The student officers are elected by the majority of popular votes of the Associated Student Body. Clarence Chadbourne, President; Shirley Mangels, Vice-President; and Lois Headlee, Secretary-Treasurer, were the officers for the fall semester. The officers elected in the spring were Mike Gonzalez, President; Frank Perez, Vice-President; and Jane Roney, Secretary-Treasurer.

Armijo this year participated whole heartedly in the war effort. Other than large purchases of War Bonds and Stamps made by students, Armijo offered to pupils several new courses. The girls were given courses in home nursing and first aid. A large group also volunteered for bandage rolling. A new refresher course in mathematics, under the tutelage of H. E. Stone, was organized for boys intending to enter the armed forces; and the shop classes undertook acetylene welding, electric welding, and other activities requested by the United States Government.

Football

The Armijo Varsity Football team had a fairly successful season, but due to the war, there wasn't any championship involved. The season's record was 3 wins, 1 tie, and four loses.

Armijo's veteran squad started the new season by losing first to a more talented Alumni squad 13-0 and next to the John Swett eleven to the tune of 19-0. Our next game was with the powerful Bulldog eleven of Vacaville and everyone will remember how the Indians sent the Bulldogs home in disgrace resulting from a 19-13 defeat. Continuing their series of wins, the Armijo Varsity bewildered St. Vincent's of Vallejo by easily winning 32-12. Armijo met the Rio Vista Rams on the latter's field two weeks later and a last minute "prayer pass" tied our boys 7-7. Here the stock of the Armijo Varsity began to fall. In a return game with Vacaville, the Bulldogs held the Indians' last minute rush that brought them within inches of pay dirt and defeated our boys 13-7.

The Indians played St. Helena in a post season game losing 13-0.

Class "B" Football

The "B" Football Squad like their big brothers (the Varsity), had a fair, although short season. They started the season with a 6-0 defeat administered by a Benicia eleven. At this time the boys began to understand the tricky offense and they upset all the so-called experts when they tied a larger and supposedly better Vacaville squad 7-7. Then came the downfall. A small tricky St. Vincent squad pushed over two touchdowns early in the game and the Bee's were unable to overcome the huge lead and were dumped 13-6. All in all, Coach Weston Alt was pleased with their showing as most of the "B's" were freshmen and promised to develop into a team which might exceed the fame of the immortal '37 Varsity.

Armijo Varsity Basketball

The Armijo Varsity experienced a very successful season, winning the mythical Solano County Championship when they defeated Davis 29-28. The squad was small, but under the guidance of Coach "Wes" Alt, the varsity won sixteen out of nineteen games. The only team the varsity was unable to master was the tall smooth-working Vallejo High Varsity. The boys romped over Vacaville, our big rival, three straight times by the scores of 30-24, 37-22, and 33-25. All of the first team were veterans of three previous years of basketball. The starting lineup was Perez and Faria, forwards; Chadbourne, center; and A. Tomasini and Gonzales, guards. Earl Athey was a very valuable man because of his height, and he very ably filled in as the sixth man on the great varsity. Others on the squad were Augustine Carrion, Deane Arnold, Jack Glashoff and Don Lattanzi.

Class "B" Basketball

Coach Alt was all smiles when he read the list of those who had signed up for "B" basketball and he had a right to because on this list were Danny Root, Joe Wolfskill, Jack Russell, Greg Pappas, Bruce Woolner, Bill Braker, Bob Fockler, Gordon Farrell, all veterans of last years "B" and "C" teams, Henry Serrano and Bill Royston, two very promising Freshmen. After the first 4 games of which Armijo had lost all 4 his smiling face was turned into one of sadness. With all this abundant material Coach couldn't find five players who could play together and so the "B" team had a disastrous season winning 4, losing 14. The "B's" occasionally showed what they were capable of when they defeated Winters and Dixon but constant turmoil between players and Coach caused a weakness in team play and an unsuccessful season.

Armijo "Cee" Team

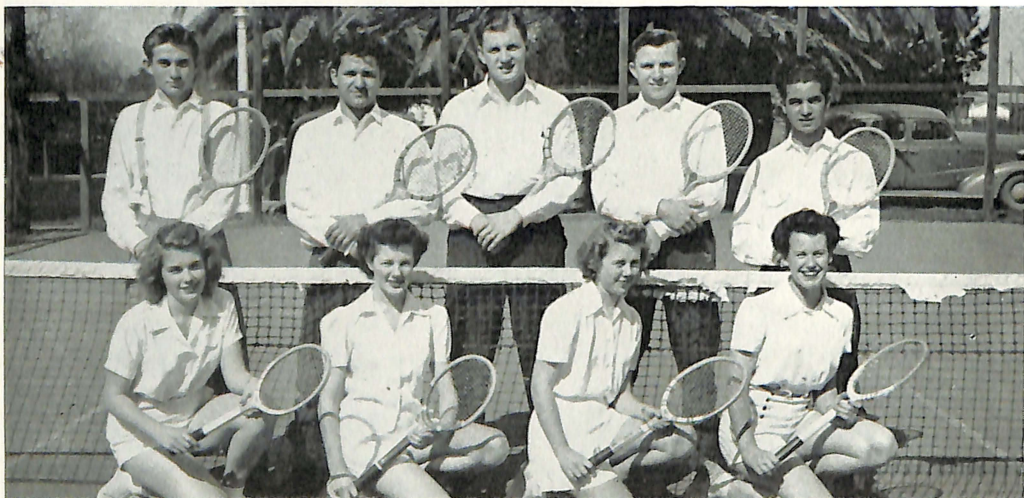

The Armijo Cee team showed their bigger brothers, the Bees and the Varsity, how to play basketball when they went through their season undefeated. The first string was Farrell and Scholl, forwards; Serrano, center; DeGracia and Captain Bill Royston, guards. Others who aided brilliantly toward the cause were Coffey, Hendricks, Blossom, Craddock, Haskill, Guyan, Wilson, and Salsman. Their season was a short one, but they came through with eight straight wins. They defeated Vacaville three straight times by the scores of 20-19, 30-23, and 27-18. Armijo is looking forward to the day when these midgets will be the mighty men of the Varsity.

 BOTTOM ROW: P. Stell, M. Ridenhour, L. Cherimisin, R. Asis, E. Magill, V. Alameda, D. Furtado, M. Lawrence, J. Hopkins, M. Larson.

The Girls' Athletic Society this year was presided over by Shirley Mangels, president; Marjorie Ridenhour, vice-president; and Dot Furtado, secretary-treasurer. The highest award, a gold "A" will go this year to the following students who have earned 1350 points: Vangie Alameda, Pat Stell, Dot Furtado, and Shirley Mangels.

The sports season of 1942-43 started off with flying colors, with Coach Bean leading the brawl. The success of the season was due to the exuberance and enthusiasm of the girls, and the "browbeating" of Coach Bean. Baseball, the hit and mostly miss sport opened the season under the management of Vangie Alameda. Interclass games were played seventh period. The Champions of Baseball were the hard fighting Juniors, who succeeded in gaining a Victory over all the other classes. When the Inter-class games were over, a Varsity and All Star team were selected by the Manager and Coach Bean. The Varsity were as follows: P. Stell, R. Asis, D. Furtado, V. Alameda, M. Ridenhour, E. Magill, V. Jones, L. Cherimisin, S. Woodard, and L. Wagner. Those who made the All Star were: D. Bransford, L. Pickett, J. Jacaville, M. Lawrence, C. Richardson, M. Lindner, D. Smith, J. Moore, A. Cruz, and L. Headlee.

Basketball, the next sport played, was the most popular sport this year, managed by Mildred Lawrence. After several weeks' practice in the gym classes, class teams were selected. Games were scheduled and played during seventh period. The Seniors defeated all other opposition coming out with a glorious victory. After the Interclass games ended, a Varsity and All Star team was chosen. Varsity members consisted of: V. Alameda, R. Asis, E. Magill, D. Furtado, S. Woodard, P. Stell, J. Jacaville, S. Mangels. The All Stars were: L. Headlee, V. Jones, J. Myers, L. Cherimisin, D. Dahlman, D. Bransford, C. Richardson, and J. Moore.

Tennis, the sport that is always popular when good weather comes, has had a very enthusiastic audience this year. Many of the girls are interested in this sport and have gone out for it with determination and pleasure. Tournaments will be played among the tennis players, managed by Barbara Okell. The girls' tennis team is comprised of the four following girls: Shirley Mangels, Pat Stell, Sally Woodard, and Barbara Okell.

Due to the printing of the La Mezcla earlier than usual this year, we are unable to get the available information about volleyball, soccer, and badminton and croquet teams.

Fairfield's Times

Population 200

May 26, 1953

Gregory James Pappas, the local genius, has submitted to the patent board his latest invention for removing flyspecks from black pepper. If his endeavors prove successful, it is rumored that his assistant, Janey Roney, will agree to go steady with him.

The joint Fairfield-Suisun Garbage Company has promoted Richard Stanley Ragle to head Truck driver of truck No. 7650934, so states the owner, Rosalie Asis.

Taking Ragle's former position of chief shovel man is Ralph Busby, who lost his position as "bar-keep" at Mac's. We sincerely hope that he will succeed in his new position. . . The local belle of the valley, Marjorie Ridenhour, whose surprise engagement to Louis Hall was announced some 10 years ago, returned yesterday from San Francisco, where, it is smelly rumored, she had been looking for a trousseau.

Proud parents of Robert Larson Selin report that they have received word from Bob telling of his successful career of teaching young debutantes—ballet dancing. Among those attending his classes are George Cordador, Ralph Buss, and charming Leslie Banta . . .

Eugene Ruben Ridgeway, Solano County's exclusive hermit, and his wife, the former Barbara "Jane" Okell, were seen in town purchasing supplies for the coming year which they will spend as usual in their charming cave up there in the hills. Don't quote me, but I have heard that their landlord, Balleriano Asis is about to foreclose on their mortgage. . . .

That gay divorcee, the former Mary Alameda of this city, is now visiting her spinster sister, Vangie, while recuperating from her sixth divorce. She has been seen in the company of Fairfield's much admired bachelor, Richard Mason.

Those happily married crooners, Pat Stell and Leo Rose, are appearing indefinitely to sing their duets in the floor show at Paul's Chili. Vincent Sabino and his rhumba band supply the music.

Jockey Alfred Walter Roche, who rode to fame on Ocean Cookie at Belmont, and his charming wife, Bette Ann (Scarlett), hardly seem old enough to be the proud grandparents of twins; but we are quoting Bette. . .

The biggest attraction to hit these hills for quite a spell will come off tomorrow evening at the local gymnasium when those two famous LADY wrestlers, Georgia Crowley and Antoinette Cordador, will battle to the bitter end for the title of Champion Wrestler . . . The preliminaries will feature Odessa Doolin and Eleanor Jean Burrell, who will try for the feather-weight title.

Adv. . . Chop-Suey House guarantees only home grown cats used. Proprietors—Henry Chan and Frank Inn. . . Adv.

Foreign Ambassador to the Fiji Islands, Leonard Faria, has sent for his wife, April Lee Harvie (Faria), and their 14 children to join him at the Embassy. Look good in a sarong, Len?

Congratulations, Lund Tim!!! Late Chicago papers say that you have landed the assignment of illustrating for Esquire. . . We're sure your new work will prove absorbing as we have learned that you are using Clarence "Buck" Chadbourne as your model for "leg art."

Local belles will want to have their hair dressed at the new exclusive Beautee Shoppee recently opened here by Frankie Perez. As proof of his skill, just look at his hair, girls. . . (and have you seen the exceptional dye job he did on Jack Isaacs' hair?)

Appearing at the Ice Palace in the current revue is that artistic maestro of the blades, Ed Pierce, and his figure cutting companion, Mary Cabral. Sponsor of this gigantic fete is the multi-millionaire heiress, Inez Holton.

Cathy Avila, famed tattooed lady, and her frequent companion and trapeze artist, Johnny Samo, have returned home for a brief vacation from Ringling Bros.

Vacaville Garlic Works, announces that it will accept the resignation of Irvin Blanc, cynic, bachelor, and confirmed isolationist. Replacing him is Daniel Ornon Root III.

Wanted—: Rich men between the ages of 85 and 90; object, Alimony—Apply: Loretta Pickett and Viva Downer.

Miss Helen Allen has just been assigned the job of painting the white line down the center of the highway. She can be seen painting early in the morning accompanied by her assistant, Jack Glashoff, who carries the can. . . .

Elaine Winstead, Solano County's newest lady judge, announces the Tomasini vs. Bransford trial will be held Tuesday p.m. Al Tomasini states that Dickie, while in the employ of Young's Dairy, ran over one of his pet pigs. Prosecuting attorney will be Bill Mattheis.

Miss Shirley Mangels is now teaching Jiu Jitsu at "Tolenas Tech." There also, teaching the Darwin Theory, is Lewis "Lincoln" Dagley. The prof states that he frequently uses himself as an example to prove his point.

John Ellsworth recently promoted from 3rd. rate gardener to 1st. rate gardener reports that the petunias are now in bloom.

Street sweeper Anselmo Canova reports that there has been an excess of rubbish in the main street; citizens, let's keep it clean.

Marjorie Akins and Dorothy Furtado, new owners of the Super Undertaking Establishment, report that business is very dead.

Featured in the local cinema this week are Mildred Gordon and Augustine Carrion, co-starred in James Kincaid's stirring novel, "Wet Mud." Entertainment on the stage will be presented by the Flora-Dora Cuties, among whom we find Lois Headlee, Jean Jacaville, Doris Rose, and Bernard Scholl.

It is positively stated that Mikie Gonzalez will receive his high school diploma this spring. We knew that you would come through Mikie. . . .

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1943, Armijo Union High School, do make the following as our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us at any time heretofore made. In our last moments, with our good will and best wishes, we make the following bequests:

To the broken-hearted faculty we will and bequeath with mingled joy and grief our absence.

To the Juniors, our worthy but conceited successors, we will and bequeath our well worn guide, "How To Be Successful Seniors."

To the lovelorn Sophomores we will and bequeath our great surplus of "It."

To the Freshmen, we will our dignity and everlasting knowledge.

Individually we do bequeath the following:

- I, Mary Alameda, do will my stubbornness to Bessie Carrion.
- I, Vangie Alameda, do will my car and gasoline to Charles Okell and George Scally.
- I, Marjorie Akins, do will my slacks to my sister Doris.
- I, Helen Allen, do will my rosy cheeks to Virginia Downer.
- I, Rosalie Asis, do will my innocent look to Sally Woodard.
- I, Balleriano Asis, do will my zoot suit chain to the Vacaville Bull Dogs.
- I, Cathy Avila, do will my beautiful eyes to Mildred Lawrence.
- I, Irvin Blanc, do will my good personality to Andy Moiseff.
- I, Dickie Bransford, do will my giggle to anyone who can find anything to giggle about these days.
- I, Eleanor Jean Burrell, do will my seclusion to Shirley Hogan.
- I, Leslia Banta, do will my "corn" to Bruce Woolner.
- I, Ralph Buss, do will my paper route to Mr. Alt.
- I, Ralph Busby, do will my uncontrollable temper to Frank Tornay.
- I, Anselmo Canova, do will my sense of humor to Bob Allison.
- I, Mary Cabral, do will my figure to Theda Jones.
- I, Augustine Carrion, do will my love for Bookkeeping to Christine Paoli.
- I, Antoinette Cordador, do will my classes with Miss Bosshardt to Nancy Roney.
- I, George Cordador, do will my tennis ability to Bob Wilson.
- I, Georgia Crowley, do will my late hours to anyone who can take it.
- I, Clarence Chadbourne, do will my services to the United States of America.
- I, Henry Chan, do will my gray hair to Lila Browning.
- I, Lewis Dagley, do will my boney knees to Joe Wolfskill.
- I, Odessa Doolin, do will my Oklahoma accent to Josephine Serrano.
- I, John Ellsworth, do will my ability to blush at the right time to Lonnie Smith.

- I, Elaine Winstead, do will my hope chest to my sister Shirley.
- I, Lois Headlee, do will my cow to June Huck.

JOKES

TEACHER: "Billy, who was the first man?"

BILLY: "George Washington. He was first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

TEACHER: "No, Billy. Adam was the first man."

BILLY: "Oh well, if you want to drag in foreigners."

MARY: I can't marry Buddy, Mother. He's an atheist, and doesn't believe there's a hell.

MOTHER: Marry him, my dear, and between us we'll convince him that he's wrong.

SMITHSON: How long have you worked in that office?

GREENE: Since they threatened to fire me.

TEACHER: You don't know what the word "mirror" means? After you've washed, what do you look at to see if your face is clean?

TOMMY: The towel.

JONES: Did they take an X-ray of your wife's jaw at the hospital?

SMITH: They tried to, but the only thing they could get was a motion picture.

CUSTOMER: What do you have in the shape of oranges?

GROCER: Well, we have baseballs.

"I hear that Miss Lindner's father has lost all his money. The new conditions must be very hard on her."

"Yes, she is so changed that her old friends no longer recognize her."

CLERK: If you were in my shoes, sir, what would you do?

EMPLOYER: I'd shine them.

NEW MISSIONARY: Can you tell me what became of my predecessor?

CANNIBAL CHIEF: He made a trip into the interior.

After a young lawyer had talked for three and one half hours to the jury, which felt like convicting him instead of the defendant, his opponent, a veteran of the bar, arose, looked sweetly at the judge, and said: "Your honor, I will follow the example of my young friend, who has just finished, and submit the case without argument."
